

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,)

vs.)	REPORT AND
)
CLINTON BROOKS, JR.,)	RECOMMENDATION
Defendant.)

On September 19, 2005, defendant Clinton Brooks, Jr. (Brooks), together with his counsel, David F. Eaton, appeared before the undersigned magistrate judge and was advised of the charges, the penalties and the right to appear before a United States District Judge. After orally consenting to proceed before a magistrate judge, Brooks entered a plea of guilty to Counts I and IX of the Indictment.

After being sworn, Brooks was orally examined by the undersigned magistrate judge in open court as required by Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11. Brooks also was given the advice required by that Rule. Finally, Brooks was given a full opportunity to address the court and ask questions.

Counsel for the government and counsel for Brooks were given the opportunity to suggest additional questions by the court. Moreover, both counsel orally certified that they were of the opinion that the plea was knowing, intelligent and voluntary, and that there was a factual basis for Brooks's plea of guilty to Counts I and IX of the Indictment.

Therefore, I find and conclude that: (1) the pleas are knowing, intelligent, and voluntary; (2) there is a factual basis for the pleas; (3) the provisions of Rule 11 and any other provisions of the law governing the submission of guilty pleas have been complied with; (4) a petition to enter a plea of guilty, on a form approved by the court, was completed by Brooks, Brooks's counsel and counsel for the government, and such petition was placed in the court file (Filing No. 69); (5) the plea agreement is in writing and is filed in the court file (Filing No. 70); (6) there were no other agreements or stipulations other than as contained in the written plea agreement except the government agreed to be bound by the plea agreement even though the $100 Special Assessment had not been paid at the time of the entry of the plea.

IT IS RECOMMENDED TO JUDGE LAURIE SMITH CAMP that:

1. She accept the guilty plea and find the defendant, Clinton Brooks, Jr., guilty of the crimes set forth in Counts I and IX of the Indictment to which Brooks tendered a guilty plea;
2. She accept the written plea agreement with the understanding that the court is not bound by the parties' stipulations, but may with the aid of the presentence report, determine the facts relevant to sentencing.
